A FILM-MAKER fears his new UFO documentary is a real-life version of The Ring - because viewers had paranormal experiences.

Mark Christopher Lee said The Rendlesham UFO - The British Roswell delivers evidence that mankind is not alone in the universe.

And he said people who had a sneak preview have experienced ‘strange and inexplicable events’ while watching it.

Mr Lee said: “We started getting reports from viewers. Strange lights, orbs, people feeling watched, power flickers. Some even reported seeing UFOs within 24 hours of watching.

unexplained lights in Rendlesham Forest in Suffolk in 1980 near RAF Woodbridge.

WILD

Davies and follows Mr Lee on a ‘wild, funny, and deeply unsettling journey’ through ‘one of the world’s most active UFO hotspots’.

He said he expected it to make a big impression on its audience - but not for them to undergo physical experiences.

Film crew said it was like the cursed videotape in 2002 supernatural horror The Ring which left viewers doomed to die.
